"THE BIBLE SPEAKS IN THE LANGUAGE OF MEN," said Rabbi Akiba.

This summer all of our campers had the opportunity of speaking that language, of learning more about our Bible. Each session was devoted to a specific book, which led us far beyond the well-known tales of Genesis and Exodus. Through games and discussion and art and hikes, the exploration continued.

Each of us on the staff learned along with the campers. That is the secret of our Camps - the unity of two and three generations living together and sharing this unique communal experience. Our campers and staff are idealistic, imaginative, and deeply committed to Judaism. Camp helps to focus and direct those ideals into action and practice.

My colleagues, administrators and specialists, set the tone. Temple President Sheldon Belousoff and Camp Commission Chairman Fred Fern represent the support of hundreds of parents and lay leaders.

Our Temple Rabbis, Edgar F. Magnin and Alfred Wolf, as well as Camp Rabbis-in-residence Bruce Block, Steve Einstein, Earl Kaplan and Mike Signer helped teach us.

And in Judaism we find our common language ...

CAMP HESS KRAMER

GENESIS

During our first month at Camp Hess Kramer, we studied Bamidbar - the book of Numbers, we sang Esa Aynai, walked through the past, enjoyed Israel night, tanned on Beach Day, cheered the Fourth of July with Hilltop, played at the CIT Carnival and competed in Junior Olympics. We heard Birdland on the Love Boat to close four great weeks.

Junior High and Leadership campers studied the books of Samuel. We played host to Israeli Scouts, the real Kahuna, Juggler Artie Bogan, and three Olympic athletes. We performed "Kazablan," created beautiful stained glass, turned the cabins into Bible World and chose Stuart as our prophet. Leadership hiked and returned to our cheers. Our session climaxed with Senior Olympics, letter writing to ourselves and a banquet of Broadway Musicals and Birdland.

Maccabbees

In fifteen exciting days, we met personalities from the book of Judges, we formed teams to compete in fifty different Macabbiah events in camp and on the beach, we enjoyed Shabbat, cookouts and campfires, and songs with Larry. Suddenly it was Agsut 31, New Year's Eve, much to our surprise, a wild exciting banquet, with one final Birdland, and then sad goodbyes.

Junior Leadership, Junior High and Machon

During this month, we took a look at the books of Kings. We hosted the opening of the Time Capsule buried in 1971, and put our own Time Capsule in the ground to be opened in 1996. We spent the 4th of July with CHK, took mystery bus trips, went on overnight hikes, held a "kumzitz" during a blackout, and explored our oneness during the "Am Echad" Hagigah.

Hilltoppers

Highlighting our 4 weeks together were the study of the book of Judges, a get-together with Camp Joan Mier, a visit from the Israeli Scouts, our special Merutz Schlichim program and Friday night song sessions. We were entertained with the play "How the Golem Stole Shabbos," and we studied the Jewish life cycle in our "Chai" Hagigah. We closed the session with Pioneer Days and a wonderful Wizard of Oz banquet.
