

SONGS OF LEADERSHIP 1993

Sung To The Theme Of "Cheers"

Hiking up Mount Boney takes everything we've got,
Taking a break to drink some water, sure could help a lot.
We just want to rest our feet,

Sometimes you got to go, to the Kybos or the bushes (da, da, da, da)
And we're falling on our tushes
We all stink, we're tired, but our troubles are all the same
And in Leadership at least everybody knows your name

Rough and tough and in the buff, E minor and C
Swimming in the ocean, where were Greg and Lee?
Wrestlemania '93, traditions made us say

Tell us a bedtime story please (FCK)
Now put on your long sleeves (Right away)
We all stink, we're tired, but our troubles are all the same
And in Leadership at least everybody knows your name

Hiking up the rocky trail, the sign knocked to the ground
Walking on forever, the beach could not be found
The watermelon by the shrine...

Our neighbors are stones in our back
Aches and pains and raging hormones (hold us back)
We all are sick, we hurt to death but our troubles are all the same,
'Cause in Leadership everybody knows your name.

Cheer

Leadership '93 (clap)
Hold on to your hats and glasses cause this is the wildest ride in the West!
