

SONGS OF LEADERSHIP 2006

Sung to the tune of "Zero to Hero"

Bless my soul,
L'ships on a roll.
Hiking through Mt. Bony
Where the view was beautiful.
Peeing on rocks
Sweating through our socks
Wishing for deodorant
May be comfy crocks.

1st by the Grottos
Started storming.
What's our new motto?
"Global Warming."
Hiking through heat, bugs
Fake snakes and sticks,
On our hike back to Kramer
With L'06.

Leadership Hikers 2006 Are you Out There?
Leadership Hikers 2006 (clap)
"Close the Gaps, Global Warming!"

Sung to the tune of "Dirty Pop"

Dirty Hike
Sick and tired of hearing all these campers complaining
What's the deal with this hot weather and when is it going to cool off
Ain't it time to realize what we're doing is not a trend
104 Degree weather.....we made it to the end.
Doesn't matter about the bugs and dirt or sweat around my neck
All that matters is that you recognize L'Ships about respect
Doesn't matter that the clothes we wore lasted all three days
All that matters is that we bonded in so many different ways
Have you ever wondered why? We have to hike so high
Toning all those thighs

Feel it when your counselors start to lie, we think we're gonna die
Smells like a pig-sty L'06 HIKE!

Cheer

Team Leadership 2006 Are you Out there?

We're not the Beastie Boys,

We're not Run DMC

We're just a bunch of Jewish kids here in L-S-H-I-P!
