The summer of 1991 was one of building and rebuilding. The Steve Breuer Adult Center construction project was under way, tennis courts began to take shape, and Gildred Hall was stripped back to its core for major renovation. Gindling Hilltop Camp's lost cabins were replaced with beautiful, spacious new ones, and the exciting shape of our camps' future lifted our vision.

In similar ways, our camps continue to build on the excellence of our past. Both campers and staff members are proud to know they are part of a tradition of 40 years of the finest camping available anywhere. When one looks at the earlier editions of this yearbook, the similarities to the pictures in this one are striking. The faces reflect the same happy reactions to good times, the same thoughtful responses to learning and prayer, and the same glow that comes from sharing our love.

Every summer we rebuild camp. We welcome new people, create new programs, and play new games. And all summer long, part of what makes the experience so rich is that we also know that we still do so much of what earlier campers did here, much of it the same way, some of it in new (or revived) ways. Our campers feel it; our staff members feel it, and that's why it has been going on so long and so well.

On behalf of the campers and staff of the summer of 1991, we thank the Camp Commission, the Camp Committee, and the officers and board of the Wilshire Boulevard Temple whose generous support continues to make this all possible.

What a wonderful session! We enjoyed new activities, like kite making and archaeology and old favorites such as drama, arts and crafts, sports and swimming. We had a great Fourth of July celebration with Gindling Hilltop Camp. We left with memories of beautiful Shabbatot, great campfires, Junior Olympics ...

Havurah-Leadership

During this session, we worked hard and played hard. We learned about God and the concepts of good and evil. We enjoyed many activities including dance, cooking and musical production, and saw great success with our basketball team and swimming and diving teams. We went roller skating and enjoyed the opening Olympic ceremony at the beach. We made friends and memories to last a lifetime!

Bonim-Garin-Halutzim

Hilltop campers experienced their best summer ever! We had a blast participating in drama, dance, arts and crafts, archaeology, nature, kite making, and much much more. We even got to be a part of the 1991 Olympic Torch Run Festival. Watching the sun set on Shabbat from the Hilltop chapel and the spirited song sessions rounded out an fantabulous session! We can't wait til next year!

Noar-Tsofim-Vatikim

We had a wonderful time at Hilltop learning all about "Chicken Soup" and having fun in the process. Terrific activities from drama, dance and arts and crafts to swimming, sports, and archery filled our days. Surprise activities seemed to pop up everywhere. Golf 'n Stuff followed by a cookout at the beach was great. Who could forget our Beach Days? They were the best! Camp is such a special place - there's no better way to spend the summer!
