

SONGS OF LEADERSHIP 2005

Sung To The Tune Of "Do You Believe In Magic"

Do you believe we made it?
All 28 miles – 99 people and we still got smiles
The counselors' accents are so contagious
L'05 we're so outrageous
Do you believe the magic of L'05
Walking all those miles and we're still alive

Do you believe we made it?

Day 1 we woke up at 4 a.m.
L.V. girls had no make up on them

Smelly pits for everyone
Taking off the watches 'cause we've just begun
Oooohhh
Do you believe we've made it?

Look at all the girls with their French braid hair
Hey Uri 2 minutes till we get there

Grottos like the Goonies and it smelled so bad
Just like the KYBOs, which at least we had
Do you believe we made it?

Goldbond, longs, and we're all set
Shames ate it hard and her shoes got wet

Up Yerba Buena we walked and walked
Now it's your turn Ethan Falk
Do you believe we've made it?

Alpert and Turk in the morning are so scary
Jeff and Matt, the fat and hairy

Gourmet meals we got every night
We were woken up before it was light
Ooooh...Do you believe in magic?

Sung To The Tune Of “Do You Believe In Magic” (Continued)

The kids in the tree

David couldn't take
The hike for Furie was a piece of cake
Every bond aches in our body
Oh Nadav, what a hottie!

Why the heck is Epstein here?
We thought he ditched camp for his gardening career!

Hike with Howard in his neon shirt
We got to the beach and we're covered in dirt
Do you believe we've made it?

We all ate it and that's no joke
Touch yourself now before the poison oak!

Do you believe we've made it?
All 28 miles – 99 people and we've still got smiles
Everyone's spirits are so contagious
L'05 we're so outrageous
Do you believe in the magic of L'05
Walking all those miles and we're still alive

Do you believe we've made it – ba, da, da,
Do you believe we've made it?
